LOCAL BREVITIES.

The first stone for the new brick building on the "burnt district" was hauled Tuesday.

Considerable sickness prevails in the Valley just now. Chiefly colds, with grippish tendency.

Probate Court will meet on the second Monday of February. The docket is published in this issue.

The flow of water at the school house well is still conspicuous by its absence. But these showers should "fill it up."

Regular meeting of Star of the West Lodge, No. 133, A. F. & A. M., Saturday evening this week. A full attendance is requested.

John Albert was called to Bearville, in Butler county, Sunday evening, to embalm a body—the local undertaker having more than he could attend to.

Chips are necessary to a sedate poker game; but chips on the street are neither desirable nor necessary. Boys, put an extra sideboard on your wagon!

Billy Buford, of Bellevue, Iron county, passed through Centreville on Tuesday, on his way home from Shannon county, where he had been to recover a stray horse.—Centreville Outlook.

The members of the Ironton Lodge, No. 244, K. of P., are requested to be present at the next regular meeting, on the evening of the 24th inst. Installation of officers and work in the ranks.

ARTHUR HUFF, K. R. & S.

C. B. Hill is again at liberty, his bond for $3,000 having been approved by Judge Green last Tuesday. The sureties are Mrs. C. F. Schmitz, H. M. Collins, Justin, Giovanni, Walter Biggs, James E. Tessoro and Joseph Henson.

Miserable is the proper designation for the weather for the several days just passed. Not cold enough to freeze, nor warm enough for comfort; wind from all points of the compass, and the atmosphere damp and marrow-piercing. You know all this? Well, we want you to know that we know it, too.

The following card was received yesterday: "Mr. John Riggs invites you to be present at the marriage of his daughter, Bertha Alice, to Rev. Olin Ward Rose, Wednesday afternoon, February 6th, 1896, at three o'clock, at residence, Godfrey, Illinois. At home after February 10th, at Colwell, Iowa." The REGISTER send greetings, with the usual congratulations.

Who weeps with you when you are sad, and laughs with you when you are glad, and swears with you when you are mad? The editor. Who has to be both kind and wise, and never (hardly ever) lies, and when he does, creates surprise? The editor. Who owns a heart as well as cheek, is possessed of a spirit proud but meek, and lives on 40 cents a week? The editor.

The drama, "Maud Irving," will be played at the Opera house Friday evening, Jan. 24th, by the Ironton Colored Amateur Dramatic Club. There will also be some fine music, consisting of solos, duets, &c. Be sure to hear the quartette which precedes the drama. Reserved seats for old members, 10c; 25c; general admission, 20c and 10c. Proceeds for the benefit of M. E. Church.

Married.—In Anna, Ill., at the home of the bride, January 15, 1896, Mr. ABRAHAM L. DUKOS and Miss MAXIE WILLIFORD. Mr. and Mrs. Dukos are visiting in Weatherford, Tex., the guests of Mrs. B. Reeves, a sister to Undertaker Albert of this place, and the groom, a nephew to Mr. Albert also, intends residing in Ironton in the near future. May joy be their path in their happy union. X.

County Court will meet at adjourned session on Monday, February 3d. Among other proceedings, the appointments of road overseers for the coming year will be made. The old overseers will retain the right to attend the meeting of the court at regular time in March. In the interim, the newly selected overseers will be required to fill their bonds and hold themselves in readiness to qualify at the appointed time.

Subjects and texts for the Presbyterian services Jan 26th, 1896: Morning subject—"Faith and its relation to salvation." Heb. 12:2; also 11:1. Evening subject—"Olive Cromwell." Prov. 21:22. Grantville 3 p. m.—"A look into our inner life makes us humble and brings us near God." Psalms 34:6. A cordial invitation is extended to all who do not attend church elsewhere to come.

Geo. H. DUTT, Pastor.

Says the Fredericktown Democrat: "Jones McKinnis has sold his interest in the harness business to Louis Schwann of Pilot Knob and will probably go elsewhere and go into business. We should regret to lose Mr. McKinnis from the community and hope that he may yet establish business relations that will keep him here." We be glad to assure our neighbor that Fredericktown's apparent loss is fully made up in the advent of Mr. Schwann, who is a man of irreproachable character, and whose capacity makes him a valuable addition to any community. He carries with him to his new home the good-will of all who know him.

Dr. H. T. Morton, pastor of the Baptist church here, preached an able sermon last Sunday, on "The Necessity of the Atonement." A large congregation was present, and all were edified by the remarks of the learned divine. His manner in the pulpit, and the kindly Christian spirit gleaming from his venerable countenance, were such as to win to himself a friend from every hearer. The song services, too, preceding and succeeding the sermon, were pleasing and affecting. The writer does not remember to have, in a long time, passed an hour more agreeably or self-satisfying.

The Ironton Hub Factory manufactured and shipped, in the year just closed, 16,300 sets of hubs, four to a set, making 65,200. To carry these to their destinations required twenty-six cars. As we all know, 1895 was a poor business year, but 1896 gives a poor business year. The Ironton Hub Factory named have now booked orders for 11,000 sets, and they hope in 1896 to treble the showing of the year previous. In passing the other day, we were a little surprised to see the huge piles of timber which cumber the ground about the factory, and were more than ever, impressed with the value of the plant to the community.

Albert Quick of Stoddard county was brought to Ironton last Monday by Deputy U. S. Marshal Nall, and lodged with Sheriff O'Neal for a term of thirty days. Mr. Quick is too quick to take liquor without a license from Uncle Sam, who quickly got onto him and made him quickstep to St. Louis. His case was quickly determined, and Mr. Quick, who, as above intimated, is a quick man himself, found that Uncle Samuel is too quick for him. In other words, Mr. Quick, quick or not quick in apprehension, has learned the valuable though costly lesson that a Quick's quickness quickly results in disaster when devoted to the science of boot-legging.

At the Academy of Music, Friday evening, January 24th, 1896: MAUD IRVING.

A DRAMA.
The plot opens with little Maud left alone in her home after the burial of her father and mother. The landlord comes in and orders her out. Molly Kidder steals her and treats her meanly. Widow Helper finally adopts her. She finds her wealthy Aunt, and finally marries Walter, the adopted son of her Aunt.

LITTLE MAUD, the orphan.....Miss Ida Lankford.
WALTER.....Mr. Henry Boyd.
MRS. ST. CLAIR.....Mrs. Ada Winkler.
WIDOW HELPER.....Mrs. S. C. Vaughn.
AUNT.....Miss Fanny Cress.
DIRECTRESS.....Mrs. Anna Henley.

A gentleman from Illinois was in the Valley the first of the week, looking up a location for a dairy. After examining various places, he went his way down the road yesterday, but will return Friday. It seems to us that no better location for dairies than Arcadia Valley is to be found on the line of the St. Louis & I. M. railway. Connected with the city by five express and accommodation trains daily, running at all hours of the day and night; possessing an unlimited stock range; growing grasses and feed of all kinds; having a climate suited to the proper care of stock with the least possible trouble and expense—why cannot the dairy business be made profitable and permanent in this section?

One of the most meritorious publications that comes to our desk is Our Dumb Animals. It is the organ of the American Bands of Mercy, the Massachusetts Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, and other humane organizations. Its motto is: "We speak for those who cannot speak for themselves." We believe the price is 25 cents a year. It usually consists of twelve pages and is illustrated. The object of the paper is a noble one. Every family should have it. It tends to make old and young more thoughtful of the lives of the little beings in the world at our feet. It will cause many a boy to think twice before he aims his cat rifle at some mother bird with a nest full of young, just to see if he can hit it. Much of our cruelty is mere thoughtlessness. It is to be hoped that the law will be enforced in this Valley in the coming summer, and the remnant of our song birds be preserved.

Among the fruit and flower novelties which 1896 brings us, we notice that the enterprising and reliable firm of James Vick's Sons, Rochester, N. Y., are already calling attention to three, which seem to have won great favor where known. They are the DOUBLE SWEET PEA, the only one in the world true to name, "Bride of Niagara," the "EARLY LEADER TOMATO," the earliest of all the early tomato family and sure to become a great favorite, and the already famous blackberry, the "RABBIT." From the praise and compliments given so abundantly to the "Bride of Niagara," this sweet pea must be more than charming and from the encomiums lavished on both the new tomato and this new blackberry, it is pretty certain no garden desiring to have the first and best of everything can be without these three new comers. By the way, readers, are any of you so far behind the times as not to know Vick's Floral Guide? If any of you have never seen it, send 10 cents to this firm at Rochester, N. Y., and get a copy. You can deduct this from the first order for seeds and the pleasure and information their Guide will give you will certainly induce you to keep up the acquaintance.

Wm. Nelson, a single man about 25 or 26 years of age, braving for conductor Robert Singleton was coming in from the south yesterday morning at 5:15 and was setting brakes as the train was coming down the grade a mile south of town, when he fell between the box cars and was instantly killed, his body being almost torn into shreds. His legs and arms were cut to pieces, and some of the limbs severed from the body. The trunk of the body was horribly mangled and the head mashed into a pulp. Four cars and the caboose passed over his body. The parts of the body were gathered together and brought to the depot immediately and about 8 o'clock the remains were removed to the undertakers where the coroner held an inquest over them an hour later. The jury found a verdict of purely accidental death. Mr. Nelson was a young man well known and well liked about De Soto, and was pronounced one of the most industrious, hard working men on the road, and his habits and general reputation was excellent. He was a member of the Granite Lodge, I. O. O. F., Annapolis, Mo., and the funeral services will be conducted by the Bismarck Lodge, O. O. F. at that place to-day where the interment will take place. He was a son of Rev. Nelson, a Baptist minister of Bismarck, and with whom he made his home. The bereaved parents have our condolences.—De Soto Press, Jan. 18th.

Arcadia News.

We were exceedingly glad to see an article from "Judas Iscariot" last week. "Simon" has not "gone the way of Jerome," neither has he taken a journey, but he does intend to be more prompt in the future.

We haven't had the time to interview Mr. Dixon, but do not think there is anything the matter with him.

Have patience, my brother; let these matters take their own course. D— and the old maids are undoubtedly on good terms, and as to the widow nothing definitely can be said.

Cy. DeMier and son were called to Pacific Wednesday by the death of Mr. DeMier's father.

Jesse Lewis, of St. Louis, is news-boy on the Arcadia.

Mr. O'Brien has returned to his work on the Arcadia.

E. C. Rockwell was in the city Wednesday.

Seaf Hatten is in Williamsville.

Rev. Early, presiding elder at Fort Hill, preached a very convincing sermon Sunday.

Mrs. Speck and Mrs. Mathews spent Tuesday in our town.

Mrs. Schuman and baby were in the city last week.

Mr. Wisdom and wife were guests of Mrs. Aspley last week.

Mr. Martin and wife spent Sunday in town.

Miss Lou Nations has been sick, but is now improving.

Miss Kate Van Winkle has La Grippe.

H. N. Baird came down from the city Saturday, returning Monday.

Will some one tell me what Hiram is tracking up and down the road so much for?

Mrs. Allison has gone to the city.

Mrs. Kinney fell last Friday and sprained her wrist very badly.

A. J. Langdon, of Cotton Plant, was at home lately.

Mrs. Medley and granddaughter have returned from the South.

The Fort Hill church bell is out of order, but services go on just the same.

SIMON PETER.

Ed. Register.—Arcadia is booming—

three communications to the REGISTER last week.

Bro. Aspley filled the pulpit Sunday night. He is about well again and is able to go about his Father's business.

Mr. Tucker Jones, also, has been on the sick list, but is able to be at himself again.

Mr. Editor, we have some people in Arcadia who claimed to be sanctified.

And I would to God that we were all sanctified, but not cranked. The writer has been a close observer for many years, and has met and associated with many who professed to be sanctified. But he has never yet found a single one who was absolutely faultless and lived a life perfectly before God without sinning. The blessed Savior was the only one who ever lived without sin; but "he was God manifest in the flesh." He said, "There is none good but one that is God."

It is rumored that we are going to have two or three weddings in the near future.

The new spring-house on the premises of Wm. A. Fletcher is completed, adding one more convenience to the place.

One crew has been pulled off the pusher here, commencing Thursday, leaving only one engine to do the work, days, and two of nights.

Mr. Buford, our school teacher, has some attraction down at Sabula, I think; but as there is no harm in it, who can blame him?

Somebody asks why Jas. Weathers makes so many trips to Grantville?

Guess he has some attraction there.

Jeff Akes was down from Iron Mountain the 15th.

The pay-car went down the road Wednesday, making the railroad boys happy.

Henry Evans still has charge of the switch engine at Iron Mountain.

Jas. B. Evans has gone to Hogan to erect a store and dwelling for the hub factory man, Mr. Lee. Hurrah for Hogan!

There is a great deal of sickness in our town, consisting mostly of bad colds.

We understand Wm. Gosney has a position at Lopez & Son's. Success to you, Willie!

Mr. Mangold was home Sunday.

I understand Prof. B. was over to Lopez's, pricing furniture. What does that mean?

Joe Reburn went to St. Louis Sunday.

I hear Chas. Eldricher is going to fire the Iron Mountain switch engine, instead of the Pusher.

We understand that several parties have visited the Valley lately to ascertain if it is available for dairy farming. They are all pleased with it, and will locate here if they can obtain land at a reasonable figure. It is proposed to establish several of these farms if they can be obtained at prices to suit. Mr. O'Brien of the Arcadia House has been instrumental in attracting the attention of the parties to the Valley.

Our public school seems to be getting along very nicely. Every student seems to be well pleased with his teacher, and we think the instructors deserve great credit for their labor.

Jan. 21, 1896. JUDAS ISCARIOT.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is famous for its cures of bad colds. It opens the secretions, relieves the lungs, aids nature in restoring the system to a healthy condition. If freely used as soon as the cold has been contracted, and before it has become settled in the system, it greatly lessens the severity of the attack and has often cured in a single day what would have been a severe cold. For sale by all dealers.

Wanted.—One thousand bushels of Corn at Lopez's.

From Des Arc.

Dr. Morris' wife died here to-day. She was taken to Cairo for burial. This poor woman suffered terribly before she died, and death was no doubt a relief to her. She died in full hope of going to her heavenly home, and left every evidence of the fact. May we all be ready when the Master calls us, and God grant that we may keep our lamps trimmed, and may our names be written there. ISAAC.

Annapolis News.

Ed. Register.—Mrs. D. A. Johnson frightened an insolent tramp with a toy gun a few days ago.

Can it be possible that England and Germany were indulging in a little by-play in order to enable England to get ready for war with the United States?

W. L. Byersdorff was in town Saturday on legal business.

Rev. and Mrs. Renssion came up Thursday and took charge of his music class. He preached this morning and will preach again to-night.

Mrs. Jesse McGlothlin went to Bismarck Saturday to visit relatives.

Mrs. John Dobbs is reported very sick.

Dr. S. E. Strong came down from Ironton to see Mrs. H. N. Loyd, who has been sick so long.

Dr. Cloanan came to town Saturday. The dog drop remains undiminished.

A good number of people came down to church this morning from Sabula.

Your correspondent, in company with several other Odd Fellows, attended the funeral of W. A. Nelson at Bismarck Saturday. The services were conducted by Bismarck Lodge, by request of Granite Lodge, of which the deceased was a member. There was a goodly attendance, and the ceremony was performed in an impressive manner. At night we attended lodge and witnessed the conferring of the third degree. Then, while working under "good of the order," the lodge was kept open until near train time, an act of courtesy to the members of Granite Lodge, that they might avoid a long, tiresome wait at the depot. Long life to them all!

P. M. Woody received a message from home to-day, announcing the death of his mother. He leaves for home Monday.

Robt. Woody, Jr., is in town.

Mrs. D. A. Johnson is very sick. Jan. 19, 1896. CRUX.

A Household Treasure.

D. W. Fuller, of Canajoharie, N. Y., says that he always keeps Dr. King's New Discovery in the house and his family has always found the very best results follow its use; that he would not be without it, if procurable. G. A. Dykeman Druggist, Catskill, N. Y., says that Dr. King's New Discovery is undoubtedly the best Cough remedy, that he has used in his family for eight years, and it has never failed to do all that is claimed for it. Why not try a remedy so long tried and tested. Trial bottles free at Crisp's Drug Store. Regular size 50c, and $1.00.

The Big Creek School.

BIG CREEK, Jan. 18, 1896.

Ed. Register.—Our school closed on Friday, January 17, after a successful term of six months. Miss Minnie Thomas of Brunot was our teacher this year. The attendance has been very good, the pupils have advanced rapidly in their respective studies, and Miss Minnie has given entire satisfaction in every respect. During her short stay among us she won many friends, and especially endeared herself to the pupils by her kind, Christian disposition.

In the afternoon (of the last day) after the recitations and declamations, the pupils and visitors engaged in an exciting spelling match. No. 28 gained the victory, coming out ten tallies ahead. Then we bid each other "Good-bye," and started homeward, sorry that it was "the last day of school."

We hope our directors will not fail to secure Miss Minnie to teach for us next year. A PUPIL.

From Grantville.

Ed. Register.—We are beginning to see a little light, and will be able to get out of our sombre condition, as it were, in regard to work, as the Syenite Company have secured some fifteen thousand dollars' worth of contracts, and ere many days roll by we will be in the midst of the din of the stonecutters' hammers once more. We earnestly hope there will be no cessation during the present year. These jobs mean, at present, the putting on some sixty or seventy men.

The P. W. Schneider Granite Company are putting in a new crusher, preparatory to doing an extensive business in the crushing line this season. They claim to have a contract for two thousand car-loads. We were told by that they shipped 28 hundred car loads during the year 1895, which certainly speaks well for our neighbor company on the north side in this particular business.

Several of our town people attended the funeral of the late Mrs. Rutchman at Ironton on Sunday last.

Services at the Presbyterian church here last Sunday were held at 4 o'clock by Rev. P. W. Schneider. Rev. Mr. Duty conducting funeral services over the remains of the above named deceased.

There is some talk of the Presbyterian folks giving some sort of an entertainment February 2d, but as the matter is not definitely arranged at present, due notice will be given further on.

Who ever saw better January weather than we have had so far? Still, there is plenty of time yet for equally weather before the winter months shall have disappeared.

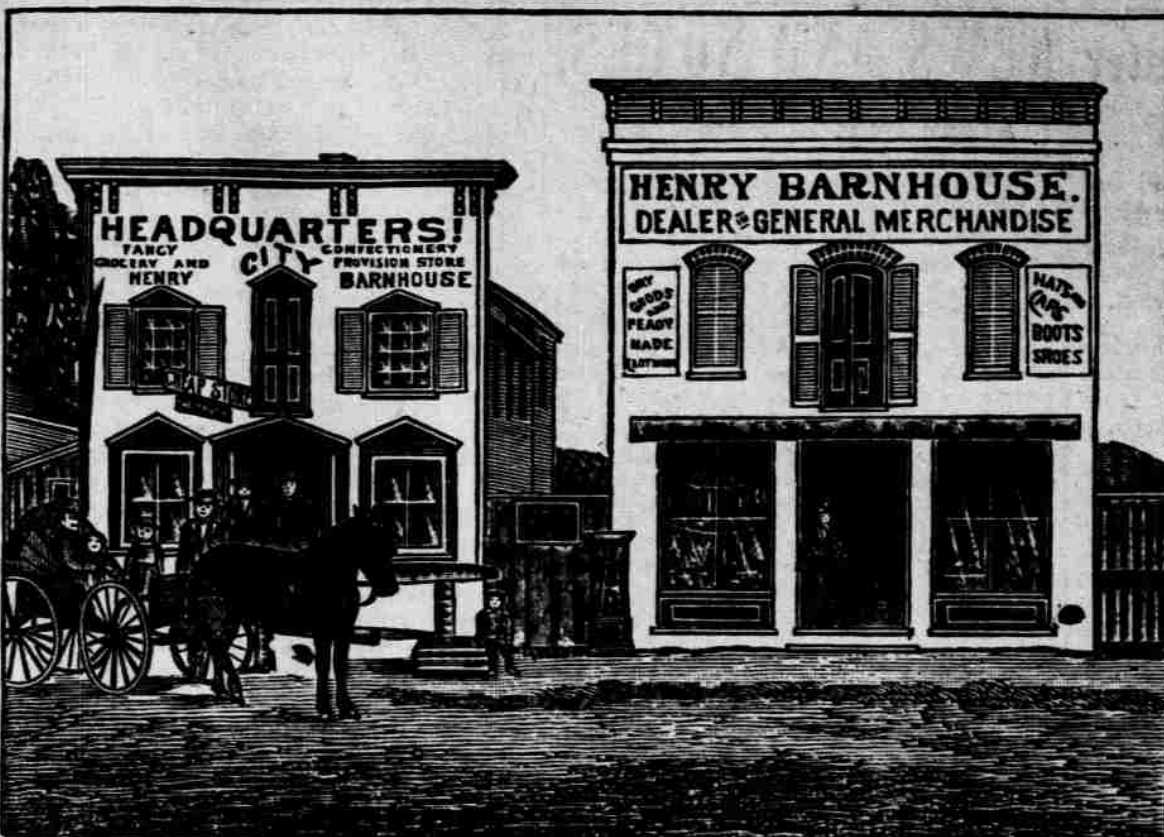

Less game of all kinds have been bagged by our local hunters this winter than ever before known in this locality.

Late letters from Mr. and Mrs. George Doud, who are at present residing at Aberdeen, Scotland, are to the effect that they will sail for America again in March, and will come direct to Grantville.

The state of health still continues good, and our M. d. find very little to do these days. CAP.

HENRY BARNHOUSE.

More Surprises.

IRONTON, Mo., Jan. 22, 1896.

Rev. H. A. Henley has great reason to rejoice at the treatment he has been receiving, for nearly two years, at the hands of the progressive, church-loving, and God-fearing people of Ironton and Caledonia. It seems that, from the number of surprises given to him this year, the people are determined not to allow his family, in common with himself, to suffer.

On a recent visit to Caledonia God poured out a great blessing upon the colored people by converting their school-teacher, as well as bringing back into the fold three other wandering souls. The pastor was doubly blessed; the people so loaded him with good things that he was unable to bring them all home. The spirit of giving seemed to have preceded the pastor; and on his arrival at Ironton he found out that a company of Sunday School children had been to the house seeking admittance. Their failure to find the objects of their search did not cause them to give up, but they came again and left a number of useful articles. Any minister, receiving such treatment, at the hands of his parishioners, little and large, old and young, should rejoice, and remember the words of David: Psal. 37:3—"Trust in the Lord, and do good; so shalt thou dwell in the land, and verily thou shalt be fed." X.

Concordia College Items.

Ed. Register.—We think that nothing from this place, at this time, could be of more interest to your many readers than to be able to read the names of the fifty pupils present at the opening of our second term. This is the school at which many of our foremost business and professional men received their education, and they will like to see who are now here in the places they used to fill. So we take great pleasure in giving the names, viz:

Allen B. Sutton, Lodi; Cora E. Sutton, Lodi; C. L. Ferguson, Marquand; Chas. McGhee, Williamsville; Harley Shetty, Castor; Angus Huffman, Grantville; J. T. Myers, Grantville; O. A. Myers, Grantville; J. T. Costner, Grantville; Chas. Ford, Zalma; Loy Myers, Grantville; J. N. Bennett, Greenville; W. C. Simmons, Zion; Jas. W. Adams, Grantville; J. E. Bell, Buchanan; E. T. Simmons, Zion; T. L. Barnes, Brunot; Alva Barnes, Brunot; J. L. Stephens, Greenville; Rosa Costner, Grantville; Lena Costner, Grantville; Lillie Whitener, Grantville; Mary Eliza Buchanan, A. A. Myers, Grantville; Octa Whitener, Grantville; Mollie M. Ford, Zalma; Agnes Barnes, Brunot; Frank Burk, Buchanan; J. A. F. Wagner, Grantville; V. V. Wagner, Grantville; Ada Stroup, Grantville; Mazetta Kinder, Castor; J. G. Costner, Grantville; Geo. M. Bollinger, Castor; C. C. Whitener, Grantville; E. G. Costner, Grantville; M. A. Henson, Marquand; C. T. Whitener, Grantville; Ulah Kinder, Castor; H. F. Keohn, Castor; Cora Barnhart, Buchanan; Josie Barnhart, Buchanan; Emma Harris, Castor; J. N. Beal, Castor; D. L. Cloninger, Zalma; Leannah Rhodes, Castor; S. L. Shetty, Castor; Vienna Burk, Buchanan; Fruna Burk, Buchanan; Cora Beal, Castor.

Quite a number of our old pupils are still teaching. They will soon return and bring gifts with them. This week several gentlemen from different sections came in to observe our proceedings. They departed after their trunks, to return and cast their lot with us. Wishing all your readers so much prosperity in their various vocations, we are Truly Yours, L. M. WAGNER.

An Old Soldier's Recommendation.

In the late war I was a soldier in the First Maryland Volunteers, Company G. During my term of service I contracted chronic diarrhoea. Since then I have used a great amount of medicine, but when I found any that would give me relief it would injure my stomach, until Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was brought to my notice. I used it and will say it is the only remedy that gave me permanent relief and no bad results follow. I take pleasure in recommending this preparation to all of my old comrades, who, while giving their services to their country, contracted this dreadful disease as I did, from eating unwholesome and uncooked food. Yours truly, A. E. BENNING, Halsey, Oregon. For sale by all dealers.

For sale cheap—the Nemlich property, opposite Nagel's. Inquire of Wm. Riecke, Ironton.

"The Seventh-Day Man."

There has been so much said in the REGISTER during the fall and winter about the "Seventh-Day Man," and the work at Des Arc especially, that I feel called upon to make a few statements of the facts in the case. Such expressions as have been thrown at us, such as, "Losing their feathers," "Monomaniacs," etc., are beneath our notice, and would not be used at all had those that used them
